

Town Council Policy
Office Closings

The authority to close the town office due to inclement weather will rest with the Town Manager. The Town Manager will consider the actions of other governmental agencies, weather conditions and the workload of the town office in their consideration of the decision to close the office.

Bradley Town Council,

Date: February 1, 2000

